A Soviet cormicsion recently inspected the plant to determine the feasibility of dismentling the machines as German property. A Communist shop steward of Ankerbrot has stated that if the dismentling were to be carried out, bread supplies in Vienna would be seriously affected.

3. A third directive provides for investigations of files on properties which may have been requisitioned by the Soviets as German property without sufficient legal justification.

Comment: Rany properties were requisitioned on the basis of poorly investigated demunciations made to Soviet Komendaturas in Vienna. Complaints of unjust soizure by former owners of some of these properties are just beginning to reach the attention of USIA headquarters.)
